Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

Father Neptune came Friday night to the municipal pool for a brief visit. Some six or seven hundred people saw Neptune, seated on his royal barge throne, drawn around the pool by a score of sturdy swimmers. As the program unrolled and these graceful boys and girls gave demonstrations of skill and strength in the water, many an oldster reflected on the dearth of such opportunities in his own boyhood. This modern swimming pool, in its spacious and beautiful park, belongs to the modern day and modern youth, just as much as does the automobile. The "swimmin' hole" with its mud and snapping turtles, has gone the way of Dapple and Dobbin.

This was a community event, for which a small charge was made to defray expenses of the pageant and to realize a little money, which will be used in park and pool improvements. It needed the demonstration of Friday night to make Nevada City people realize that they have the most beautiful park and most modern pool of any little mountain city in Northern California. It is an achievement that every citizen may take pride in.

We now shift from the SERA to NRS, or the National Reemployment Service. It will probably mean very little change in those projects begun under the SERA, and will mean an expansion in those projects which carry with them a great permanent value. As its name implies it will be the duty of the Reemployment Service to find jobs for those on relief and to give them relief only when jobs in private employ are lacking. It is notorious that a considerable number of SERA workers have refused employment under private employers, at considerably more aggregate wages monthly, than offered by the SERA on a part time basis. It is understood that under the new set-up these lazy scamps will get short shift.

This brings us to the theme of last Friday's column, namely, what to do with the unemployables and unemployed in normal times. A solution which commends itself to many thoughtful persons, is this: This army, which in population of 125,000,000 is always bound to be large, should be employed landscapong and making beautiful the nation's highways. In the hot valleys deviduous trees should be planted along them; in the mountains, flowering shrubs. Practically all highway rights of way should be a 100 feet wider and all but the most necessary signs, those of guidance to motorists eliminated. This a big job. But when one reflects on the large proportion of waking hours which a good half of the population of this country spends upon the highways, the value of such work appears. A civilization's culture is manifest in its roads and public buildings. Rome owed much of its greatness to these things.

What to do with the unemployables who suffer disabilities of mind and body? This problem, as the country increases in population, becomes more and more pressing. Germany ruthlessly sterilizes mentally feeble and certain criminal classes. Since Hitler came to power some 80,000 of these operations have taken place. Some states in this country are practicing this method of reducing the numbers of incompetents for the future. Recent statistics indicated that among the unemployed the birth rate is far higher than in the rest of the population. No question but that the civilized nations in a few more years will use this method generally for reducing the numbers of those who are born to become a burden upon the thrifty and industrious.

TWO MEN MISSING· FRIENDS ASK SEARCH

Considerable mystery surrounds the disappearance of John McToush and Charles Wright, both over 60 years of age, who left Grass Valley last Friday by car fo Mooes Flat in Sierra county for a visit to their friends, and never reached there.

Friends came to Nevada City this morning and notified Sheriff Carl Tobiassen, as some fear is felt that may have gone over the grade. Two years ago a car went over the grade at Moores Flat and the car and body were not found until a week later.

WATER PAGEANT YIELDS $90 FOR POOL BENEFIT

The water pageant, featuring "Showing Neptune" Friday evening filled all the seats and brought out a record number of autos to the municipal park and pool. It is estimated that 1,000 persons saw the big show. Addison Janes who directed the evening's entertainment received much praise for the success it proved to be. His entire cast, in the excellence of individual and group performance, reflected good coaching.

The Nevada City park commission reports that approximately $90 was realized. Complete reports are not yet available. This sum will be used for park and pool improvements. While this amount does not seem very large in relation to the big audience, it must be remembered that no charge was made for children under ten years of age, and more than half the audience were children.

A merry group of young people, members of the Nevada City high school band, and those assisting in the evening's entertainment, initiated the new community house, following the water pageant, with a dance. Members of the Park Commission were present.

Addison Janes announced this morning that classes for beginners, intermediates, advanced swimmers, and life saving will be resumed on Wednesday. In the meantime the pool will be drained and cleaned again.

Mr. Kilroy urges the holding of as many card parties as possible in private homes. He will continue honoring the tickets as long as they come in.

The concert this week will be given on Thursday instead of Wednesday as is customary so as not to interfere with the attendance at any of the scout jamboree fund card parties.

After the concert a silver offering will be taken for the benefit ot the jamboree fund. The band has donated their services for these summer concerts, they have been greatly appreciated by the public and the band is hopeful of a generous donation for the scout fund.

All those sixty or seventy boys and girls who enthusiastically gave their time and best efforts to make the entire evening one of pleasure and entertainment for the big audience.

THIEF TAKES CAR AND $40 CASH

The Grass Valley Motor company reported to Sheriff Tobiassen yesterday that during the night some one, suspected to be an employee, had decamped with all the money in the cash register, amounting to about $40, and a 1934 Ford sedan, belonging to F. E. Thayer of Colusa. Peace officers throughout the state have been notified to be on the look out for the thief.

REWARD OF $50 OFFERED TO FIND HOUSE BREAKERS

Vandals practically wrecked the interior of the new Lobdell service station on Shaws Hill, between Nevada City and Grass Valley, sometime Sunday evening. The station, which had almost been completed by George Bobst, contractor, was entered during the night, the burglars using a two by four scantling to break down the doors of the rest rooms. Living quarters at the station were visited and an ironing board, which with its installation cost approximately $35 was splintered and hacked to pieces. Bobst estimates all the damage at approximiately $50. Sheriff Carl Tobiassen has been notified and is making a determined effort to find the culprits.

Mr. Bobst is offering a $50 cash reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of these burglars. He has deposited a check with the Nevada City Nugget for that amount, and it will be given to anyone who brings in the first correct information regarding the perpetrators of this outrage, upon which the authorities can base arrests and prosecution.

DEATH SUMMONS ELMER ELSTER

After a brief illness at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Masterson on Sacramento street, Elmer Elster, suddenly passed away late Friday night.

Young Elster had suffered several days with a throat infection. Friday morning he suffered intense pain and was given care by Dr. W. W. Reed. Late in the evening his distress was increased and the doctor was again called but he died before the doctor arrived. He died from strangulation, his throat having swollen so that he could not breathe, just before he died he wrote "no air" on a piece of paper and handed it to Mrs. Masterson who was caring for him.

Mr. Elster was a native of Wisconsin, 24 years old and a graduate of the University of California. He was a mining engineer and had been working at the Bullion mine to obtain practical experience. He had resided in Nevada City about a year.

His body was taken care of by Coroner L. R. Jefford who after an investigation found that death was due to natural causes.

To Borrow Money

"For the general good of the entire state," Thomas M. Foley, director of the State Department of Military and Veterans' Affairs, urged Californians today to vote for propositions 1, 2 and 3 on the August 13th special election ballot.

Foley pointed out that for some time the state has been guilty of housing people in state institutions under conditions that were not healthy to say the least and in some cases the state was guilty of direct violation of the public health ruling on ventilation.

"Californians have been guilty," Foley said, " of housing people under conditions that an animal-lover would not subject his dog to. There has been no remedy. We have had to accept conditions as they were until money was available to right the conditions. Now is the time for Californians to show that they have a heart by voting yes on these propositions."

While speaking primarily for support of proposition No. 1, the veteran leader also urged passage of proposition 2 and 3.

Poposition No. 1, through a $13,950,000 bond issue, will supply money for improving state hospitals in California as well as improving other state buildings.

It will put thousands of men to work, Foley said, and result in an impetus to the building trades.

Proposition No. 2, which has been advocated strongly by State Controller Ray L. Riley, provides for short term borrowing by the state. It would permit the state to borrow from banks to pay debts rather than issue registered warrants at 5 percent. Riley and other state financial leaders believe it would save the state millions of dollars.

Proposition No. 3 would allow a state authority to build a dam in Rector Canyon, Napa County, to impound water for use of four state institutions.

Forty-five percent of the dam's cost would be paid outright by a federal grant and the balance would be borrowed from the federal government with revenue bonds as security. Water users would pay for the bonds and the dam eventually would become state property without cost to the taxpayers, Foley pointed out.

State Commander Archie Closson of the American Legion joined Foley in urging passage of Proposition No. 3.

The God of Thumbs

Some say there is a god of thumbs,
Which I believe is true;
All day he sits designing sworls
And every one is new;
And where a million people come—
The wise, the great, the dumb,
Though all are painfully alike,
Each one has his own thumb.

Yes, we may be as much alike
As peas within a pod,
But each one bears a special brand
Etched by the old thumb god;
And never does one human thumb
Resemble any other,
And never is a stenciled thumb
Mistaken for its brother.

Now you may love and run away,
Beware, you have one thumb;
Before its testimony you
Will stand confused and dumb.
You may commit the perfect crime
And prove an alibi,
But those strange lines upon your thumb
Your every word belie.

Escape to islands of the sea,
Hide in the darkest den,
Your thumb still sets you quite apart
From all your fellow men;
Now raise a beard and stain your skin,
And still you are afraid,
Your thumb is like no other one
The god of thumbs has made.

You took it from your childhood's home
And you must bring it back;
Across the seas, through alien lands,
It leaves its eerie track;
And if you are a craven thief,
A gangster or a bum,
Old Johnny Law is on the trail
Of your revealing thumb.

—A. MERRIAM CONNER.

SAN JUAN WATER USERS VOTE TO CONTINUE LEASE

The San Juan Ridge Water Users Association meeting Sunday afternoon in North San Juan at the request of Ross Taylor, representing the River Mines company, voted to continue the lease made in 1928 for the use of the Pine Grove reservoir and other water distribution adjuncts owned by the River Mines company. The vote was 19 to 4 in favor of continuing the lease.

E. B. Dudley and other dissenters refused to vote because they did not think the meeting sufficiently representative. Many land owners and water users were not present. Some of those opposed to voting a continuance of the lease expressed the belief that it would serve to bolster up legal titles to ditches which are now in dispute. This in general was the viewpoint of W. E. Moulton, who voted against the measure. A suit is now pending to quiet title to certain ditches and water rights claimed by the River Mines company.

Fred Conner opened the meeting as chairman, Edwin May was then elected to preside and other officers were chosen to record the proceedings.

SAMOANS NEED CARE TO AVERT DISAPPEARANCE

BERKELEY, July 29. — Unless our treatment of the people of American Samoa is vastly different than that received by the Hawaiians, they are bound to disappear from the face of the earth.

This is the prediction made by Dean Benjamin O. Wist of the Department of Education, University of Hawaii, who recently completed a survey of Samoa for the purpose of establishing an educational system there. Dean Wist is a member of the Summer School factulty of the University of California.

In substantiation of his claim, Dean Wist said that 150 years ago the population of the Hawaiian Islands was approximately 300,000, all full blooded Polynesians. At present the population is still 300,000, but less than 5 pecent are pure-blooded Hawaiians and less than 15 per cent have an Hawaiian blood in their veins.

At present the health problem of the Samoans is a most pressing one. Dean Wist said. Eighty percent of the 12,000 inhabitants of American Samoa have filariasis, a parasite disease of which elephantiasis is one manifestation. The amazing total of 100 percent of the population has hookworm. Extermination of these diseases would be a most costly experiment, and would account for only a few of the problems that involve the Samoan people.

While the Samoans for the most part see little reason for changing their ancient manner of living, they are an adaptable people and readily absorb features of outside civilization that are not forced on them. They have become Christianized for the most part, are intensely religious, and will say a prayer before every conference, family, business or otherwise.

WRESTLERS WILL CLASH THURSDAY

Fenton and Detton, who constitute the main event in Thursday night's wrestling program at Memorial Hall in Grass Valley, were featured on the card two weeks ago in Memorial Hall. The final fall in this event came to Fenton, after Detton made a flying leap, missed and knocked himself out. This of course was very unsatisfactory to the Detton backers and next Thursday night promises a battle royal between these two mighty grunts.

CAMPTONVILLE, July 29.—The Camptonville fire patrol of the local forest service headquarters had its first fire call a few days ago when the Alaska Peak lookout reported a fire in the vicinity of the Janes property. They proceeded to the place, but instead of finding a conflagration upon which to displey their extinguishing artistry, they found Constable John Janes coaxing along a new saw, which engine was belching forth a huge quantity of black smoke which made the lookout think the country as on fire. The boys came on home and finished supper.

TWO GAY COOKS IN EARLY MORN ADVENTURE

Two men this morning were detained by Chief of Police Robson, as suspects in two early morning adventures with cars and booze. The men, James Clay and Brown, are cooks. Apparently filled with inspiration this morning Clay "borrowed" Long John's car and started down Broad street. His steering was faulty and the car straddled the bridge over Little Deer Creek. Later he borrowed his friend's car, (Brown) and started south on Spring street. He came to the end of the road but the car went on. Nobody cared to prosecute, so the two were finally freed, after Clay had acknowledged that he "done wrong."

A. M. TOM
HERB SPECIALIST
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
For years I was a sufferer from constipation. My blood was out of order and my kidneys and bladder bothered me terribly causing dreadful back-aches. On top of all this I had female trouble.
I tried several doctors but none helped me. One recommended an operation which I dreaded as a previous operation did not help me.
One day my husband noticed A. M. Tom's advertisement and suggested that I visit him. Having taken Herb treatments for five weeks, I am well again, and able to go back to work.
I cannot praise A. M. Tom too highly and if you are suffering I honestly recommend you to see him as I know what he has done for me, he can do for others.
Signed, Mrs. Lena Williams, 1230 Rameriz St., Marysville.
